CLAIMS DAMAGES OF $250,000

Joseph Chicaponi of New London Filed Action Against

Charles Feirin of New London as Result of Collision

Between Automobile and Motorcycle—Accident Happened on September Third—Motorcycle Was Demolished and Driver Was Badly Injured.

On Wednesday papers in a $250,000 damage suit, brought by Joseph Chicaponi of New London against Charles Feirin, also of New London, were filed with Clerk George E. Parsons of the superior court. In the complaint it is alleged that on Sept. 3, 1916, the plaintiff was riding a motorcycle in a westerly direction on Bank street, New London. The defendant was proceeding in an easterly direction in a large automobile. The defendant in approaching the public highway known as Jefferson avenue turned sharply to the left and cut directly in front of the plaintiff's motorcycle. The auto and motorcycle collided. The plaintiff was thrown from his motorcycle and the motorcycle was demolished. The plaintiff received numerous cuts, abrasions, lacerations on his head, limbs and body; strained and sprained muscles of his limbs and back. In consequence the plaintiff has been a long time incapacitated from performing any labor of any kind. The papers are returnable before the superior court on the first Tuesday in November.

James L. Case Elected Educational Society Trustee

Was Chosen at 97th Annual Meeting in New London.

The ninety-seventh annual meeting of the Connecticut Educational Society was held Wednesday morning in connection with the Baptist state convention at New London. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. G. W. Nicholson, Bridgeport; first vice president, Rev. E. R. Hyde, Middletown; second vice president, Rev. D. C. MacIntosh, New Haven; secretary, Rev. W. G. Fennell, D. D. Hartford; treasurer, Fred B. Bunnell, New Haven; auditor, H. H. White, Hartford; and clerk, Herbert Truesdell, A. M., Rev. N. J. White, D. D., G. P. Gladding, John N. Lackey, D. C., James L. Case of Norwich.

Miss Janet S. McKay spoke for her own school at Philadelphia, which is to receive a $200,000 endowment from the Northern Baptist convention. It had eight girls from the state, and year, and has five this year. Yet Connecticut has done nothing financially for the institution at Philadelphia, so that the state is considerably behind in expenditures already made in helping young women through the school.

At the session of the convention on Tuesday afternoon Rev. E. R. Hyde read the report of the five year program which follows:

The principal work of this committee during the past year has been the arrangement for and the conduct of four conferences in the different sections of the state in which the program was brought more definitely to the thought of the pastors. These conferences were held last December and January at New Haven, Bridgeport, Norwich and Hartford. The attendance on the part of the pastors was good, the interest was deep and the results at least encouraging.

Practically all our pastors are anxious to see it put through with splendid success. That the importance and practicality of this five year program may be brought to every last church and church member in our state we recommend:

1.—The continuation of a five year program committee for the whole state that shall plan and direct this campaign in Connecticut.

2.—The securing of a five year program committee in each association.

3.—The holding of a five year program in each association.

4.—The enlistment of teams in each association to carry the plans and enthusiasm to every last church in the association, thus making a real attempt at having every Baptist church in Connecticut interested in the accomplishment of its definite portion of the whole program.

The observance by all of our churches on Sunday, Oct. 23, as five year program day.

We believe the five year program is the greatest challenge to the faith and consecration of our churches that has ever been given to us. Will we consider it simply a job to be done, or will we take it seriously and attempt its accomplishment?

The Connecticut Baptist convention will meet next year in Danbury, having accepted the five year program as presented Wednesday afternoon at the closing meeting of the convention.
